

Engaging the Next Generation

Engaging the next generation. Sounds big, doesn't it?

The Grace School of Theology is all about engaging the next generation of people, evangelism, churches, ministries, and programs. We're dedicated to ensuring that the next generation is prepared, equipped, and connected to have a profound impact on the kingdom - whether at home or around the world.

What do we mean by engaged? Simply put, it is about investing in Christ followers to maximize the use of the gifts, talents, intellect, and heart that they have been given. It is about connecting scripture to not only the head, but to the hands, feet, and heart of their local communities. It is about modeling the truth in how we turn our collective and individual calling into vibrant ministry. And, finally, it is about commissioning students to Christ and their ministry as ambassadors that change their world.

In Grace and Truth

Grace and truth are the two cornerstones of the Grace School of Theology. God's grace as expressed through Jesus Christ guides our teaching, our educational programming, and our culture. Truth, as expressed in Scripture, describes our educational content and our teaching methods. Together, you benefit through becoming prepared to take grace and truth into your world.

To Changing Your World.

The Grace School of Theology wants to help you to change your world. Whether that 'world' is a lay ministry, or an entire church; within your community, within your nation, or around the world. We know that Christ works through his people to affect ministry that changes individuals, communities, and the world - for Him.

Our educational programs, relationships, and service opportunities prepare you to put your calling into action and reach, teach, and serve others for Christ. To do this, we offer you:

- Experience: Long-term, proven, ministry-savvy instructors/teachers.
- Expertise: Advanced degrees held by all our instructors/teachers.
- Quality: Reputation, outcomes, and commitment to Christ.
- Comprehensive: Programs to train, equip, and enable our students.
- Turnkey: Your educational needs are addressed in their entirety.
- Results Driven: Imparting knowledge, driving application.
- Collaborative: Relationship, team-oriented approach to education.
- Local: We are where you need us to be.

Are you ready to change your world in grace and truth?
