Dual Credit Courses:
Grace School of Theology & The College of Biblical Studies

Grace School of Theology has partnered with the College of Biblical Studies to offer dual-credit courses. You can earn credits towards your Master's Degree while you are working through your Bachelor's Degree. We typically offer two dual-credit courses each semester at the campus of The College of Biblical Studies, 7000 Regency Square Boulevard, Houston, Texas 77036. Courses offered under the dual-credit program are clearly designated within the course description in the registration system and other documentation reflecting a semester's course listing.

Here is how it works: You can receive dual credit towards a Bachelor's Degree (2-3 hours with CBS) as well as a MA degree (3 hours with GSOT) if you do the following:

- Apply for Admission to Grace School of Theology and be in good standing with The College of Biblical Studies. If you have not yet applied to The College of Biblical Studies you will need to do so. See www.cbshouston.edu.
- Register and pay tuition and fees to both The College of Biblical Studies and Grace School of Theology.
 - In addition to the standard tuition and fees for the CBS class you will be required to pay the GSOT tuition and fees as well.
 - Please note that financial aid from CBS will not cover the additional cost for the Grace School of Theology tuition and fees.
- Complete additional course work to satisfy Master's level credit (on top of the Bachelor's level course work). Any additional requirements will be detailed in a supplemental syllabus for the courses offered under the dual-credit program.
- Earn and receive passing grades for the dual-credit course from both CBS and GSOT.

Why take classes for dual credit? You can be working on your Master's Degree while finishing up your Bachelor's Degree. Taking dual-credit classes may save you time, money (i.e., for course materials and texts), and effort, and enable you to graduate with a Master's Degree in less time.

I'm interested! What's next?
